Afternoon session

Clue's CLUES is an adventure in confidence, communication and camaraderie, effectively shaking the company Etch-a-Sketch. Through Tim's high-energy, fun and interactive session, your team will uncover new answers to old problems, as well as access some tried-and-true old solutions for new communication challenges. Highlights:

- Letterman is a pro – leave the sarcasm to him.
- I didn't text you on purpose.
- When not to send that next e-mail.
- Four generations of employees on one floor.
- Why person-to-person isn't really "old school."

Keep the Focus

*(Not the car...
the concept)*

Evening session

Tim's ability to take life lessons and weave them into a series of mental post-it notes will have you laughing and taking out your pen to write down some of his Clue-isms. Tim takes his experience as a teacher, a road comic of 20 years and a writer and puts a bullet point by each experience to provide amazing life lessons and a shared perspective to help each of us recall our own core truths. Tim's focus on humorous, meaningful messages provides unforgettable takeaways. His stories are a perfect energy drink without the chemicals.

Featured speaker Tim Clue is a communication consultant and professional comedian with over two decades of experience serving the special entertainment needs of the corporate community. Tim creates and performs original business humor and has earned a reputation as a direct and creative presentation humorist.
